2010 SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Going Beyond the Call of Care...

As a trusted source in the community, Hudson Valley Magazine has been consulting with our local medical professionals in hospitals, private practices, schools, nursing homes and other care facilities in an effort to discover and nominate nurses who are Going Beyond the Call of Care. This year, Hudson Valley Magazine plans to honor these exceptional care givers and members of our community, during the 2010 National Nurses Week, Wednesday, May 12, 2010. We plan to celebrate them for their intelligence, compassion and outstanding commitment to care for the citizens of our community.

Nominated by their peers, 50 extraordinary nurses in our community will be honored individually and receive an exclusive certificate of recognition along with a special commemorative gift and dinner celebration at the Grandview in Poughkeepsie, May 12, 2010. Twenty of these remarkable nurses, chosen by a committee of medical professionals and editors, will also be profiled in Hudson Valley Magazine's May issue. The nurse with the overall highest rating will be announced at the dinner, given an opportunity to speak briefly and a donation will be made to the charity of his or her choice in their honor.
